

NAFTZ Spring Seminar May 18-20, 2025 in Savannah, GA

CCS/CES Credit The National Association of Foreign-Trade Zones (NAFTZ) partners with the National Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of America, Inc. (NCBFAA) for continuing education as well as applying for Licensed Customs Broker (LCB) credit. NCBFAA has final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CCS/CES credit and U.S. CBP has final authority on LCB credit. 6.5

CCS/CES/LCB credits are offered by attending this seminar. Requests for credit must be received immediately noting expiration dates apply to apply credit to one's NCBFAA account.

Participants will be able to:

General Sessions

- Identify new developments with CBP & FTZ Board
- Discover keys to successful FTZs
- Define the status of trade trends & developments

Operator/User Track

- Understand how best to navigate CBP Relationship & facility procedures
- Identify zone entry nuances
- Explore current supply chain challenges
- Review FTZ Compliance Review

Grantee/Marketing Track

- Explore the Gov. Agency/Grantee Relationship
- Identify Grantee Marketing Attraction
- Understand the complexity of production authority

Fundamentals of FTZs Track

- Determine FTZ Benefits & Program Evolution
- Discover the application/activation/admission process
- Distinguish regulatory and statutory requirements
- Identify the steps for merchandise handling and transfers
- Recognize what's admissible to FTZs, their purpose and legal status
- Learn how to maintain inventory control, recordkeeping, and periodic reporting for an audit

Advanced Track

- Identify best practices for FTZ optimization
- Define what's involved in generating FTZ leads
- Review additional savings via First Sale

Delivery method: Group Live.

Program Level: Beginner *except for *Advanced Track which requires basic understanding of FTZs

Prerequisites: None*

The National Association of Foreign-Trade Zones (NAFTZ) partners with NCBFAA for continuing professional education going thru the appropriate approval process in requesting CCS/CES and Licensed Customs Broker (LCB) credit. U.S. CBP and NCBFAA have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for credit.

For more information regarding refund, complaint, and program cancellation policies, please contact Victoria Cartwright, NAFTZ at 202- 331-1950 ext. 225 or vcartwright@naftz.org.