

Polia Comella is a Manager at Rockefeller Group Foreign Trade Zone Services, a division of Rockefeller Group Development Corporation and a part of The Rockefeller Group. The Rockefeller Group is a private corporation dedicated to excellence in commercial real estate and real estate services including foreign-trade zone feasibility, site selection, approval, activation, and operational support services.

Polia is a licensed customs broker, IATA/FIATA certified and an Accredited Zone Specialist (“AZS”). She formerly served as FTZ Administrator for a multinational apparel and outdoor gear retailer. Prior to that, Polia worked for a major freight forwarder and customs brokerage firm. Polia has a Bachelor degree in Business Administration from the University of Washington Business School and a Masters Degree in Applied Economics from Johns Hopkins University. Polia is an active member of the National Association of Foreign-Trade Zones and participates on the Automation and Operator User Committees and various PGA Working Groups.