

Michelle Schulz, Managing Director of Schulz Trade Law PLLC, advises corporate clients on complex international trade and Customs compliance and enforcement matters. Her practice includes export and import disclosures, investigations, audits, penalties, encryption controls, and other complex areas of international trade law. Michelle has over 22 years of in-depth experience in international trade law.